

JOURNAL OPINION

Aug. 19, 2024

Road partially reopens after storm

The White Mountain National Forest announced on Friday that Long Pond Road on the south end in Glencliff was partially reopened after it sustained heavy damage from the July 31 rainfall.

The reopened road restores access to the Long Pond recreational area, per a WMNF post to Facebook.

The north end, which received damage from an earlier storm, remains closed.
